ABOUT THIS WINERY

With a beautiful amber color, bitter Sommer Authentique presents a characteristic nose of roasted beans (coffee, chocolate) and caramel blond. It then gives way to softer aromas of candied citrus fruits (orange, mandarin). In the mouth, it awakens a blond beer with a beautiful bitterness. The finish is superb, with a touch of liveliness and freshness.

PRODUCT NOTES

The exact recipe for Sommer bitter is a well-kept secret that has been passed down through generations of "master infusers", using the regional know-how that we carry on in the cellars of our former Ingwiller brewery.

Sommer is beautifully presented in an elegant and refined yet generous engraved bottle. At its head, an "S" which is an emblem and a unifier. The very ergonomic shape means that this precious nectar can be dosed very precisely.

The label is authentic through and through: oval...

WINEMAKING NOTES

The ingredients macerate for long weeks in the purest of spirits, in the dark. In the past, this was done in large terracotta pots made in many potteries in the Betschdrof region, not far from Ingwiller.

It is throughout this patient phase that the aromas of citrus fruits, gentian root and many other plants mingle to become the noble and refined product that is Sommer bitter.

During this period, only experience allows us to judge the evolution of the maceration and the right moment to stop it,...
